

Musicnotes Introduces Audition Cuts Product Line

Musical theatre auditionees have a new weapon to conquer auditions. Musicnotes, the world's leading publisher and retailer of digital sheet music and digital sheet music technology, officially announced its Audition Cuts partnership with Sheri Sanders, the pioneer behind the musical theatre revolution, Rock the Audition.

Arranged in both Long and Short-Cut versions, Audition Cuts are made specifically for auditions in all styles of popular music currently represented on the Broadway musical theatre stage. Sanders has been bridging the gap between popular music and musical theatre since 2004. She turned her 2011 "how to" audition book into a multi-media online training program – "Rock the Audition Online" for performers, teachers, and coaches. Sanders' ability to capture the essence of all styles of popular music and their relationship to musical theatre story-telling shows in her Long and Short-Cut arrangements now available at Musicnotes.

Sanders says, "I've been creating these cuts to be complete 'short' and 'shorter stories,' that have a great musical and emotional arc that sound amazing in the audition room. Audition Cuts provide the performer with the perfect arrangement to compete in the most in-demand genres of musical theatre."

"We're delighted to offer Sheri's Audition Cuts to our 6 million customers," said Tim Reiland, Executive Chairman of Musicnotes. "Made for musicians by musicians is one of our guiding principles and we hope these Long and Short-Cut arrangements will help the Broadway stars of the future, rock their auditions!"

Musicnotes currently offers more than 700 Audition Cuts and will be expanding the product offering in the months ahead.
